DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

On August 25, 2020, Vicki Hollingsworth filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered left shoulder injuries related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) as a result of an influenza vaccine received on September 20, 2017. Petition at 1. Petitioner further alleges the vaccine was administered in the United States, she suffered the residual effects of her injury for more than six months, and that neither Petitioner nor any other party has filed an action or received compensation for her vaccine-related injury. Petition at ¶¶ 2-7, 18-19. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On January 5, 2022, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding Petitioner entitled to compensation for SIRVA. On January 27, 2022, Respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation ("Proffer") indicating Petitioner should be awarded $121,734.64. Proffer at 2. In the Proffer, Respondent represented that Petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Id. Based on the record as a whole, I find that Petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, I award Petitioner a lump sum payment of $121,734.64 (representing $112,500.00 for actual pain and suffering and $9,234.64 for past unreimbursable expenses) in the form of a check payable to Petitioner. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under Section 15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.

³ Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), entry of judgment can be expedited by the parties' joint filing of notice renouncing the right to seek review.

On August 25, 2020, Vicki Hollingsworth (petitioner) filed a petition for compensation under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, as amended (“the Vaccine Act” or “the Act”), 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-1 to -34. Petitioner alleged that she suffered a Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine Administration (“SIRVA”) as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine administered to her on September 20, 2017. Petition at 1. On January 3, 2022, the Secretary of Health and Human Services (“respondent”) filed a Rule 4(c) Report recommending that compensation be awarded. ECF No. 25. On January 5, 2022, the Chief Special Master issued a Ruling on Entitlement finding petitioner entitled to compensation. ECF No. 27.

Respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded $112,500.00 in actual pain and suffering. See 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(4). Petitioner agrees.

B. Past Unreimbursable Expenses

Evidence supplied by petitioner documents her expenditure for past unreimbursable expenses related to her vaccine-related injury. Respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded past unreimbursable expenses in the amount of $9,234.64, as provided under the Vaccine Act, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(1)(B). Petitioner agrees.

II. Form of the Award

Petitioner is a competent adult. Evidence of guardianship is not required in this case. Respondent recommends that the compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment as described below and requests that the Chief Special Master's decision and the Court's judgment award the following: a lump sum payment of $121,734.64, representing compensation for actual pain and suffering ($112,500.00) and past unreimbursable expenses ($9,234.64) in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Vicki Hollingsworth. Petitioner agrees.

III. Summary of Recommended Payments Following Judgment
